In collaboration with

School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University

WHAT? The Instructional Decision (ID) Academy is designed for faculty to become competent in developing effective and efficient Team Based Learning modules.

WHY? The main goal of the Instructional Decisions Academy (IDA) is to empower faculty to make the best instructional decisions based on evidence-based best practices in Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment with a peer-to-peer and mentoring approach. At the end of the program, participants will develop an effective and efficient Team-Based Learning (TBL) module on a topic of their choice.

WHO? This Workshop is appropriate for teaching faculty of any discipline who have interest in developing effective and efficient Team Based Learning modules.

WHEN? The Workshop takes place virtually at IST time 8.30 PM with some optional settings at times optimal for international partners in USA. Sessions will be recorded.

WHERE? The Workshop takes place on a virtual platform.

HOW? The workshop is a weeklong online program. It will consist of daily synchronized online sessions (1 hour 30 minutes). During the synchronized sessions, the participants will be introduced evidence-based best practices in Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment. Further, each participant will meet with a TBL expert/mentor in One-on-One meeting to receive constructive feedback on the module they are developing.

Applications are due by February 19, 2021.
