

Report of the International Students' Day observation held at School of Pedagogical Sciences (SPS), Mahatma Gandhi University (MGU) dated 17th November 2022

International Students' Day is an international observance of the student community, held annually on 17th November as a celebration of the multiculturalism among the students. International Students' Day was celebrated at School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University on 17th November 2022. The formal function started at 2 pm with the prayer recited by the SPS Chorus. Dr. Sibin. G. Netto delivered the presidential address and introductory remarks. Dean Faculty of Education & HoD of School of Pedagogical Sciences Prof. Dr. Asha JV inaugurated the function. She urged students to come forward to conduct a series of similar programmes in the future. Prof Dr Minikutty A, Dr. Ismail Thamarsseri, and Dr. Muhammed K.V., has felicitated the programme through their words of blessings.

Students presented a tableau on the theme of migration of students to abroad directed by Ms Mercian Gloria Vivera. Then there was a dance performance on the theme fraternity and peace under the leadership of Ms Malu Mathew. Students presented a video directed Mr Deny Varghese which gives a detailed description about the importance of the international student's day. The video narrated the experiences and observations of the select international students in the MGU campus. Ms Rithu Anna Johnson and Ms Sheril Sara Thomson are anchored the programme. The observation of the day honoured the student cooperation, diversity, and multiculturalism. Mr Ramdas KS has coordinated the programme.

Report prepared by Ms Rithu Anna Johnson & edited by Dr Ismail Thamarasseri. Photography by Ms Gayathri Devi.

SCHOOL OF PEDAGOGICAL SCIENCES

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS DAY CELEBRATION

 17 November 2022

 SEMINAR HALL

 2 pm

Inauguration :

Prof. Dr. Asha J V

Head of the department

SCHOOL OF PEDAGOGICAL SCIENCES

MG University

