School of Pedagogical Sciences (SPS), Mahatma Gandhi University (MGU)

Report of the Inauguration of Three Smart Televisions donated by SPS Alumni Association & Felicitation Ceremony of M.Ed. Rank holders, UGC NET-JRF holders, winners of Eunoia 2023 dated Thursday 9th February 2023

“I think the success of any school can be measured by the contribution the alumni make to our national life.” - John F. Kennedy.

As the global society continues to evolve and change, the School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, strives to meet the demands and needs of this dynamic environment. The mission of the school, to provide quality education to individuals from all walks of life, regardless of socio-economic situation, was shown and accomplished on 9th February 2023. The school's reputation has increased to new heights due to the efforts put forward by the five M.Ed rank holders, 12 UGC NET/JRF holders, and the winners of the Eunoia 2023 competition. As such, on 9th February, 2023, at 3 p.m., a ceremony was held in SPS's Seminar Hall to congratulate all of the winners and to launch the three smart televisions that the SPS alumni association had contributed. The programme sharply began at 4 pm with the arrival of the honourable Vice-Chancellor of the Mahatma Gandhi University, Prof. (Dr). Sabu Thomas. The students were fortunate to have a distinguished person like him come to the event. Ms. Jain Ann Chacko and Ms. Vanisree V from the SPS choir sang a lovely prayer song.

After that, Dr. Sibu G. Netto, Assistant Professor of the school and Secretary of the SPS Alumni Association, greeted everyone in the programme with the deepest love and respect, including the dignitaries on stage and the award-winning youngsters, parents, non-teachers, administration staff and M.Ed students. In addition, on behalf of the school, he praised and mentioned gratitude to Professor Dr. Sabu Thomas, the vice-chancellor, for his excellent care and support for the school.

Prof. (Dr.) Asha J.V., Head of the Department, School of Pedagogical Sciences presided the programme. Prof. (Dr.) Asha J.V congratulated the award-winning students and praised them while recalling the SPS Alumni Association's devotion to the department. In her presidential address, she wanted that the students obtaining master's degrees would look up to their elders, use them as role models, and strive to achieve great goals in life and have a bright future.

Then the most honourable Professor (Dr.) Sabu Thomas, serving as the Vice Chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi University delivered the inaugural address and formally launched three smart televisions to the department by releasing a documentary video presenting the early history of the School of Pedagogical Sciences, the department's vision, mission, achievements, former teachers who are the cornerstone of the department, serving teachers, non-teaching staff, administration officers, students, and the services, sources available in the department. He watched the entire video along with our beloved teachers and congratulated them on their hard work. During his inaugural address, he mentioned the importance of bonding between alumni and department. He stated that the relationship between the alumni and the students will really be a booster for them to achieve their targets and lead successful lives. He wished the school to go much farther in the future and create much more rank holders, and JRF-NET conquerors, making the school and teachers proud.

Then there was a ceremony to felicitate the rank holders of the 2020-2022 M.Ed batch students. The first rank holder, Ms. Ann Mary Jacob, the second rank holders, Ms. Anju K S, and Ms. Meenu K Baby received the memento from Professor Dr. Sabu Thomas. Students who passed the NET-JRF test in 2022 and earned prizes from the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Dr. Sabu Thomas, including Soumyamol CA cleared (JRF in Education), Anu M George passed (NET in Adult Education), all other students: Anjaly K Raj, Ann Mary Jacob, Vanisree V, Athira VV, Vinny Catharine Sam, Julie Jacob, Anjusha Anil, Neethu Maria Mathew, Ajitha TA, and Reshma Elizabeth Rosh, have successfully completed the (NET in Education).

Professor (Dr.) Sajna Jaleel felicitated the rank winning students and congratulated the students for their meritorious performance in the UGC NET-JRF 2022 Examination. During her felicitation address, she stated that the students who did not perform as well as they hoped will not be discouraged and will keep working towards their dreams. She wished that more students would be able to achieve success in the upcoming exams and would be able to reach the top institutions in the country and abroad and would be able to perform well there.

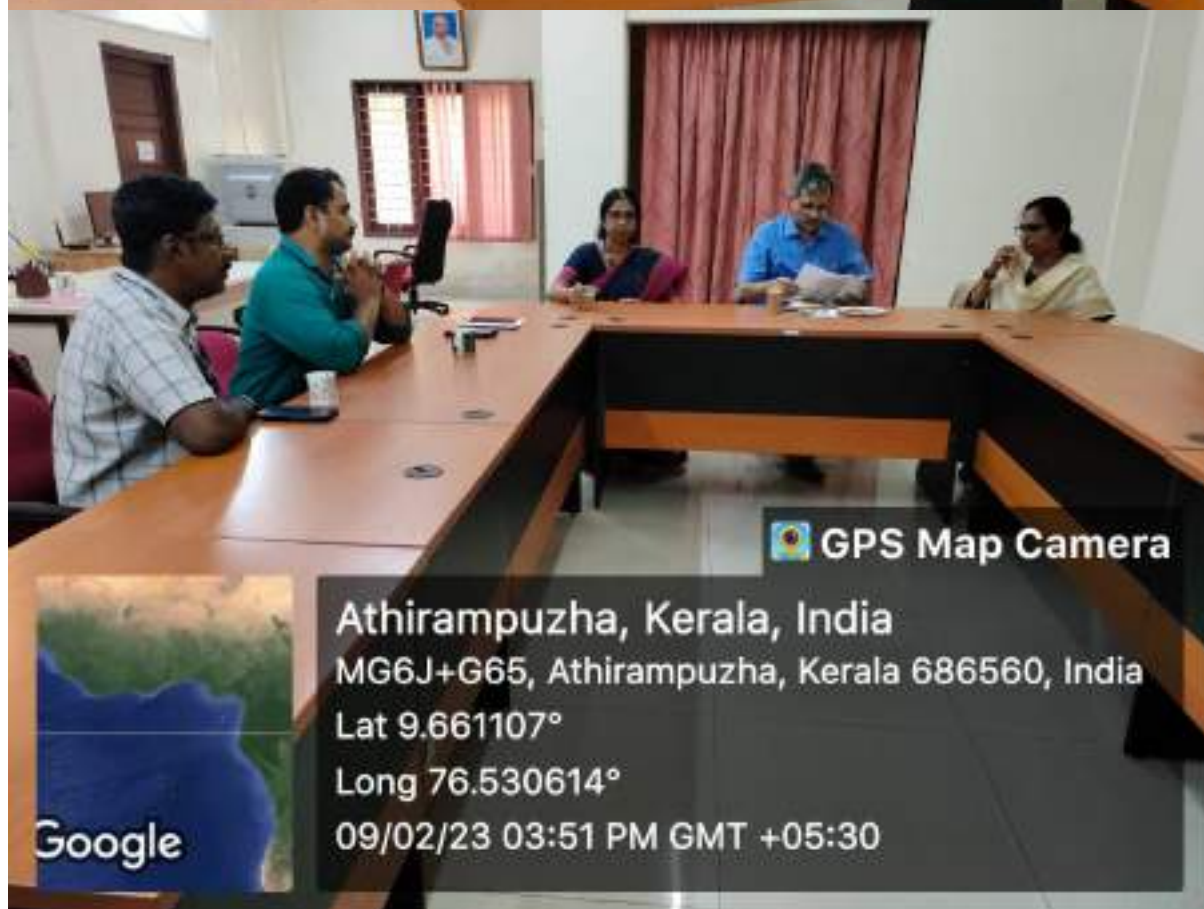

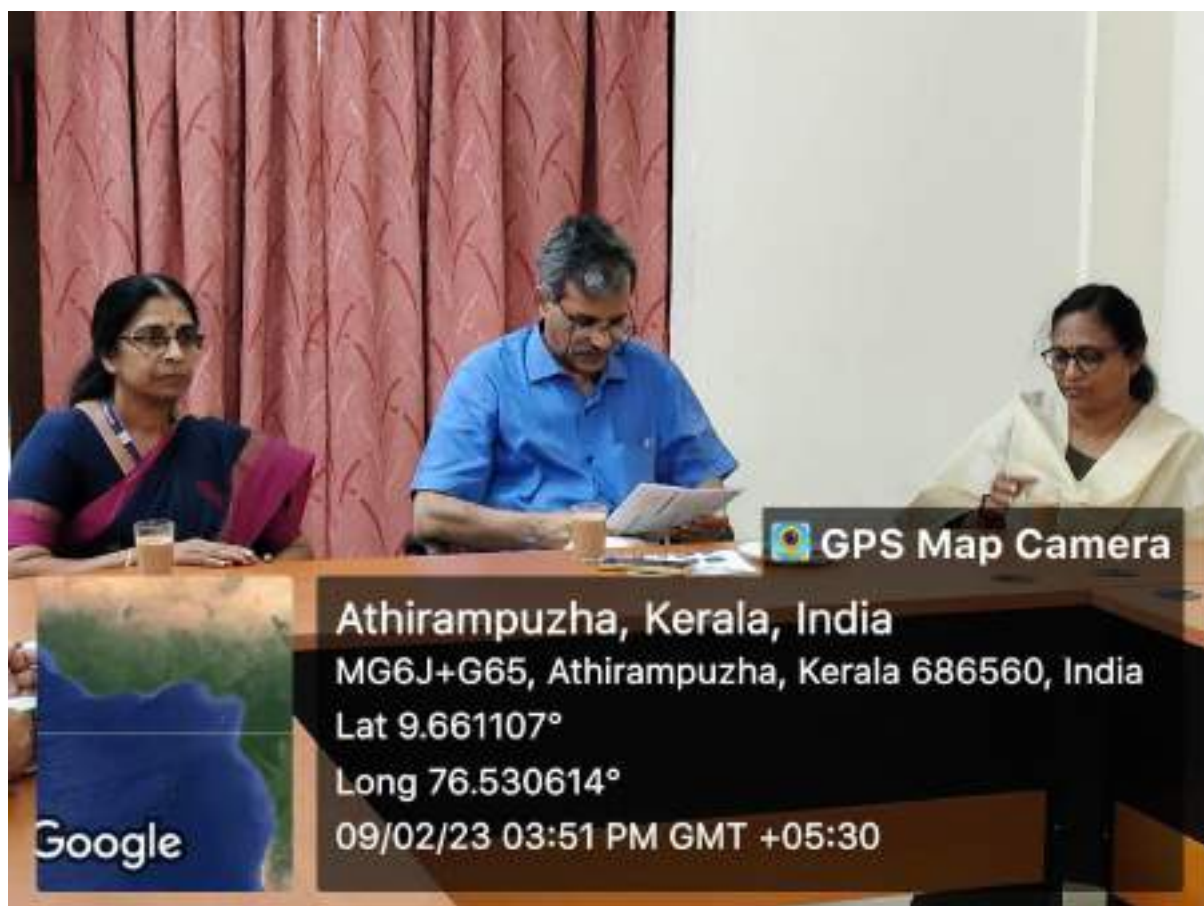

During the felicitation address, Assistant Professor (Dr.) Muhammed K.V., Secretary of the PTA congratulated all the rank winners and applauded all the students who performed well in the UGC NET Examination 2022. He emphasized that nationwide "the percentage of individuals who succeed in the UGC NET examination is very low" and that the test is "very demanding." In this context, mentioning the number of qualifiers from SPS, and he claimed that the students did a great job of completing a challenging task. He expressed confidence that more students would succeed in passing the upcoming NET exam. Also, during his speech, he mentioned that the PTA will give full support for the students studying and performance in competitive exams. He extended his warmest wishes for the occasion.

All of the award-winning students received good luck and promising future wishes from Dr. Smitha S., Assistant Professor. 'Receiving an award from a renowned person like the Vice Chancellor is a rare event in life', Dr. Smitha S emphasized in her speech of congratulations. She also emphasized the importance of constantly being thankful to God, our parents, and our professors for all of the successes and advancements we have in life. She gave the program her best wishes once more.

After the award-giving ceremony, it was time for the rank holders and the examination winners about their success. Ms. Ann Mary Jacob, Ms. Anju K.S, Ms. Meenu K Baby, and Soumyamol CA shared their reflections and experiences gathered through their M.Ed journey from the school.

The programme came to the end with a thankful address given by Assistant Professor Dr. Ismail Thamarasseri, who was the coordinator of this programme. He expressed special thanks to Dr. Sibu G. Netto (Assistant Professor), delivered the welcome address of the programme. He expressed his heartfelt gratitude and love to the Head of the Department, Professor (Dr.) Asha J. V., who delivered the Presidential Address of the programme. He expressed his deepest appreciation and love to Professor (Dr.) Sabu Thomas, Vice Chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi University, who came to the department, gave mementos to the award-winning students and congratulated the school for all its activities. Then he addressed the love and gratefulness to Professor (Dr.) Jaya Jaise, Professor (Dr.) Minikutty A., Dean, Faculty of Education, Professor (Dr.) Sajna Jaleel, Dr. Muhammed K.V., and Dr. Smitha S. Then he expressed his thanks to Ms Divya Martin for her professional and artistic presentation of all the content in this program. Along with Ms. Parvathy Madhusoodhanan and Mr. Febin Jose, who oversaw the hospitality and logistics sections, he also extended his gratitude and affection to the SPS Choir participants who sang the prayer song. Finally, he remembered the support of the non-teaching staff and administration members who provided all support for this programme and expressed his gratitude for their work. The programme ends up with by singing of the National Anthem.
