The School of Pedagogical Sciences at Mahatma Gandhi University welcomed the M.Ed. 2025-'27 Batch on July 21, 2025, with a solemn and purposeful gathering in the Seminar Hall at 2:30 PM. The program was organized to welcome the M. Ed. Students of 2025-'27 Batch and to provide them with valuable insights as they step into new academic pursuit. The event witnessed the presence of Honourable Vice-Chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi University, Prof. (Dr.) C.T. Aravindakumar, Head of the Department, Prof. (Dr.) Asha J.V., Prof. (Dr.) Sajna Jaleel, Dr. Smitha S, non-teaching staffs and research scholars.

The programme started with prayer by SPS Choir, seeking the blessings of the Almighty. The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Smitha S., Assistant Professor & Course Coordinator of M.Ed. 2025-'27 Batch, followed by the Presidential Address of Prof. (Dr.) Asha J.V., Head of the Department. In her Presidential address, Prof. (Dr.) Asha has given an insightful message to the freshers of M.Ed. 2025-'27 Batch which urges on the importance of maintaining self-discipline in the campus and to make the best out of every opportunity open to them in the Department. The Inauguration of the programme was done by Prof. (Dr.). C.T. Aravindakumar, Honourable Vice-Chancellor of M.G. University, followed by a wonderful inaugural address in which Sir has clearly portrayed upon the importance of utilizing the academic resources available in the University, importance of creating a rapport with teachers and to engage themselves in all the activities that will mould the students into a better human being in all aspects- intellectually, physically and mentally

Prof. (Dr.). Sajna Jaleel, Professor, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Ms. Gopika Krishnan, Research Scholar and Fr. Subin P.J. (Student Representative, M.Ed. 2023-'25 Batch) offered heartfelt felicitations to the new batch of students. Mr. Akhilesh R Nath, Research Scholar delivered the vote of thanks. The program concluded with the National Anthem.
