

WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY CELEBRATIONS - 2026

World Environment Day 2026 was celebrated on 5th June 2026 with great enthusiasm and vigor at School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University. The observance served as an epitome of every individual's responsibility to preserve nature and natural sources in-order to foster sustainability practices.

The celebration was marked with a grand inaugural ceremony at the Seminar Hall of School of Pedagogical Sciences at 10 am on 5th June 2026. The esteemed presence of Honorable Vice-Chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi University, Prof. (Dr) Duraipandi Mavoothu, has made the occasion more special. The Environment Day celebrations started with a soothing prayer song by Aswathy Sabu, M.Ed. Student, followed by Welcome Speech by the most respected Head of the Department, Prof (Dr) Sajna Jaleel. The inaugural address was given by Prof. Mavoothu which was truly an eye-opener message, which reflected the spirit and rhythm of the day. The message precisely outlined the importance of preserving the nature and natural resources, the 'B to B' approach was mentioned by Honorable Vice Chancellor which portrayed 'Back to Basics' idea in the context of Environment Day Celebrations. The inaugural address was followed by Lamp Lightening ceremony.

Ms. Somiya, M.Ed. student has delivered the World Environment Day message, which included the need of practicing environment-friendly habits in-order to ensure that our planet is preserved in its innate essence. It was followed by Environment Day Pledge by Hena Mariam of First M.Ed. An enlightening World Environment Day talk was given by Shri Jayaprakash, Retired Agriculture Officer. In the message, Sir has mentioned about the importance of incorporating practices in daily routine that would nurture and foster environment and its flora and fauna. Honoring Horticultural Excellence was yet another attraction of the celebrations. The hard work and determination of workers who devotedly aspire and work for preserving the herbal garden were appreciated and the leaders together with their team members were honored by Honorable Vice Chancellor.

It was followed by Tree Plantation Ceremony at the Herbal Garden by the Honorable Vice-Chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi University, Prof (Dr) Duraipandi Mavooth, in the presence of beloved Head of the Department, Prof (Dr) Sajna Jaleel, Retired Agriculture Officer, Jayaprakash, faculty members of School of Pedagogical Sciences, Heads of the Department of various schools, Research Scholars and M.Ed.
